NOAH Heritage Day dinner slated

By SUZIE MAYBURY

BELLE GLADE—A year ago three concerned citizens were sitting around a kitchen table talking about the needs in the community.

One issue that stuck foremost in their minds was the problem of adequate and affordable housing in Belle Glade. They decided then they were going to do something about it.

Today those three Belle Glade residents, along with nine others, have organized a not-for-profit group called Neighbors Organized for Adequate Housing (NOAH) to improve the "dreadful" housing conditions.

The group's most recent endeavor is acquiring a duplex from the First Baptist church which is presently being renovated to provide comfortable low-income housing for those in need.

NOAH member Betsy Farrar said through the help of the Belle Glade Housing and Community Development Committee the non-profit organization was able to obtain funding.

THE NEW ALPHA HOUSE, first of the NOAH Housing Projects, is located on Northwest 10th Street. The duplex will be available for rental later this month.

Golf course expansion OK'd

Palm Beach County Commissioners unanimously approved the nine-hole golf course extension at the Belle Glade Country Club in a 5-0 vote Tuesday, Nov. 6.

In a special meeting Monday night, Nov. 5, city commissioners also approved the expansion project after studying the lease agreement.

The new nine-hole addition will be built on 100 acres of land acquired through a land swap with John and Curtis Thompson. A driving range and parking facilities are also drafted into the golf course plans.

The Thompsons earlier negotiated with the county to exchange one acre of their land near the municipal golf course for four acres of county-owned farming land near Palm Beach Junior College. The county was initially intending to develop this farming land into a

Importance of sugar legislation explained to media

By BILL DOUGHTY

With the 1984 sugarcane harvest in full swing the Florida Sugar Cane League held a media forum Friday, Nov. 2, at the Clewiston Inn to discuss the 1981 Agriculture and Food Act which is due to expire after the 1985 crop.

This piece of legislation is vital to the sugar industry because it provides a loan program for domestically produced sugar, maintains stable prices to consumers of sugar products and prevents "dumping" of sugar in the United States by foreign producers who are subsidized by their governments.

Moderated by Horace Godfrey, vice president-Washington representative of the Florida Sugar Cane League, the four members of the sugarcane panel included Joe Marlin Hilliard of Hilliard Brothers; David Beardsley of Beardsley Farms; Greg Warr of Lykes Brothers; and Dalton Vancey, executive vice-president of the Sugar Cane League.

Media representatives included reporters from the Palm Beach Post, Miami Herald, Wall Street Journal, Clewiston News, radio stations WAAZ and WSWN and WPTV-Channel 5. The primary purpose for the forum was to present the sugar industry's efforts to get Congress to renew the bill in early 1985.

Because of a continuing world surplus of sugar and the "dumping" actions of many countries, Godfrey said the 1981 act, besides providing programs for other farm commodities, acts as a "safety net" for domestic producers.

Without a reliable program, sugar prices rose as high as 65 cents in 1974, dropping to less than 10 cents in 1976-1978, then rising to 42 cents in 1980, before again falling to another 10 cent low.

The result of these price fluctuations was that many farmers and processors were driven out of the industry and consumers were poorly served.

Under the current program, sugar producers may pledge sugar as collateral for a United States Department of Agriculture-operated loan of 17 cents per pound (for raw sugar) in fiscal 1983. The loan price will increase to a high of 18 cents per pound when the bill is due to expire.

Interest on the loans is charged at a rate that covers the cost of money to the government. Thus it is a no-cost program for the government to run. Each loan has a six-month term, except they are due and payable at the end of the fiscal year they were made.

Still, comparing that 17 cents with the average production costs of a pound of raw sugar, which the USDA estimates at 21.8 cents (for the 1980-1981 crop), the loans account for only approximately 78 percent of production costs.

In order to maintain price stability, the government utilizes Section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1933. This law authorizes special import fees or quotas on foreign commodity imports when it is determined that these imports are a threat to domestic commodity loan programs.

Election day feast served

PAHOKEE—The Pahokee Chamber of Commerce prepared an election day feast for local residents Tuesday, Nov. 6.

The barbecued chicken and corn-on-the-cob was available for voters to take out or eat at the fire station.

The Chamber organized the dinner to make life a little easier for Pahokee citizens on election day. Jim Bennett, the chamber president, was responsible for delivering the meals and he said by 1 p.m. he had already personally delivered about 40 dinners.

The meals went for $5 a plate - $2.50 for children - and the chamber expected to sell about 600 chicken dinners by the end of the day.

Chamber director Walter Rashley said the chamber hopes to make about 50 percent off of each dinner.

The income will help support the financially burdened chamber which has been working on several fund raising projects in an effort to

Autopsy ordered in baby's death

BELLE GLADE—Police are awaiting the results of an autopsy to determine the cause of death of a 3-month-old baby found dead after his mother left him in a chair while visiting neighbors.

Antoin Harris was found wedged between the chair's back and armrest by his mother, Dorothea Harris, 20, when she returned to her home on Southwest Tenth St. Monday morning. Police believe the child smothered in the chair.

The baby was rushed to Glades General Hospital by a Belle Glade Fire Department rescue team. Doctors worked 30 minutes trying to revive him. He was pronounced at 5:43 a.m.

An autopsy was scheduled to be performed Monday by the Palm Beach County Medical Examiner, but results have not yet been released. Kenny said no charges have been filed.

About $65,000 in funds were acquired from the county to renovate the Alpha House project located on N.W. 10th Street. Farrar said NOAH members expect the house to be completed by the end of this month.

NOAH also received about $24,000 in gifts and $27,000 in low-interest loans.

But getting the duplex was not the difficult part. NOAH members had trouble finding a lot to put the house.

Sister Patricia Downs, also of NOAH, compared the dilemma to the old testament event of Noah who had built his ark but had no place to put it. "For 40 days and 40 nights it rained, but then we saw the rainbow," said NOAH member David Warnke. It took the group 40 days before they finally found the lot on N.W. 10th St.

The group plans to rent the house to those families and individuals who meet the federal guidelines, said another NOAH member, Sonya Fernandes Rendon.

Applications are now being taken for those interested. The group expects to rent the four bedroom unit and the three bedroom unit for about $60-$65 a week.

Now the group is looking for a location to put a new county donated duplex. Gladys Ganzy of Belle Glade Housing and Community Development said because the building is a manufactured house NOAH must find a lot outside the fire zone.

"We have enough money to move it, we just need a place," Sister Pat said. "The county will move the house all we have to do is purchase the property."

Sister Pat said NOAH intends on continuing to upgrade housing standards in Belle Glade and they hope to one day become developers.

"We plan to train people in leadership and self-help development," Sister Pat said.

"We eventually want to get out of renting and train them (renters) to possibly get into ownership," Farrar added.

But housing is only one of NOAH's concerns. This week, to commemorate the many cultures in the Glades area, has been declared Heritage Week and it was made official in a proclamation by Mayor Thomas Altman during a city commission meeting.

To conclude the Heritage Week, NOAH is throwing a Heritage Day dinner Saturday night, Nov. 10, at the Belle Glade Civic Center.

"Our main concern is getting people together," Rendon said. "The dinner is a celebration of all the different races and religions in the Belle Glade area."

Warnke described Belle Glade not as a melting pot but as a salad bowl of cultures.

"They don't melt together. They each have their own individual culture which makes a salad bowl with good combinations," he said.

Rendon, who described Saturday's dinner as a "international gastronomic fling," said NOAH hoped the gathering would "get people together to show it can be done."

"Maybe this will build bridges among cultural groups," Farrar said.

Crime briefs — Domestic quarrel ends in stabbing

BELLE GLADE — A domestic quarrel Saturday, Nov. 3, ended in a stabbing and the arrest of local woman.

Jeanette Kelley, 33, of 525 S.W. Ave. C, was arrested by Ptlm. N. Hevey after she allegedly stabbed James Roy Preston, 30, of 423 S.W. Ave. B, for calling her names.

Kelley told the police officer that W.P. Kenny she was washing clothes when Preston began calling her names. She told the officers she went to her apartment and got a butcher knife and when she returned to the wash house she threatened to stab Preston if he continued to call her names. She further stated that Preston threw a bottle at her before she stabbed him.

The victim was taken to Glades General Hospital and then transported to St. Mary's in West Palm Beach for exploratory surgery. Preston is reported to be in stable condition.

Kelley was transported to the Palm Beach County Jail and held on $10,000 bond for attempted first degree murder.

Escapée surrenders

BELLE GLADE — After escaping from a Belle Glade police officer's custody Saturday, Nov. 3, a local man finally surrendered himself the following day.

In an attempt to break up a fight between two men, Ptlm. Ray Ruby was hit in the chest by Jerome Lee Wilborn, 17, of 653 S.W. 7th St. Ruby arrested.

rested Wilborn for disorderly conduct and resisting arrest with violence.

The officer handcuffed Wilborn and placed him in the patrol unit. While Ruby was chasing the second suspect, Wilborn escaped custody.

On Sunday, Nov. 4, Wilborn surrendered and also charged with escaping from custody.

Hit and run accident injures 8-year-old

BELLE GLADE — An 8-year-old girl was a victim of a hit and run accident Saturday, Nov. 3, when she ran into the path of a car on S.W. B Place.

The driver of the car, a 17-year-old juvenile, stopped his car and looked at the girl but fled the scene without rendering aid.

The child was admitted to Glades General Hospital and treated for a possible skull fracture and lacerations.

The juvenile was arrested and charged with leaving the scene of an accident with injuries which is a third degree felony.

Ptlm. W. Teal and Det. W. P. Kenny were the arresting officers.

Burglary suspect arrested at the scene

BELLE GLADE — Police arrested a Belle Glade man, Saturday, Nov. 3, when they arrived on the scene of a burglary in progress.

Edward Bernard Jenkins, 25, of 516 S.W. Ave. 1, seeing no route of escape, surrendered to police.

The victim was awakened when Jenkins was allegedly going through her purse.

Jenkins was transported to the county jail and held on $3,000 bond.

A Pinch of Salt

"Any jackass can kick down a barn, but it takes a good carpenter to build one."

I am writing this column Tuesday afternoon. Since the polls have not yet closed, I can only speculate the outcome of each race. But one thing I am sure of is that Wednesday morning there will be a lot of angry jackasses kicking down barns because the candidates of their choice lost.

It's good that you feel strongly about your choice of candidates, but after the election it won't do any good to pout and curse over those who won. In fact, your critical attitude will accomplish only one thing: it will cause others to lose faith in the system, and then we're all in trouble. If you don't like those who were elected by the popular vote, do something about replacing them the next time around.

Before you carelessly criticize a national or local leader take warning from the example of Miriam; it's recorded in Numbers 12. When Miriam "spoke against" her brother Moses, who was the political leader of Israel, she was severely disciplined by God. All she did was criticize him for marrying a Cushite woman (possibly an African), and the next thing she knew her body was covered with leprosy. Her sharp tongue probably earned her the name Miriam, which in Hebrew means bitter and rebellious (all you Miriams please forgive me for mentioning that).

Here's what Paul says we should do with government officials: "Here are my directions: pray for others; plead for God's mercy upon them; give thanks for all He is going to do for them. Pray in this way for kings and all others who are in authority over us...this is good and pleases God our Savior." 1 Timothy 2:1-3 Living Bibles.

Don't kick down barns; build leaders.

Highway Patrol braces for holiday

TALLAHASSEE-The Florida Highway Patrol has predicted forty-two persons will die in Florida traffic accidents during the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday period beginning at 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 21, and ending midnight, Sunday, Nov. 25. This prediction is based on data collected over the three previous Thanksgiving holiday periods.

Department records reveal that 50% of last year's thirty-six fatal crashes were alcohol related. Colonel Bobby Burkett commented, "Alcohol continues to be our number one problem in traffic safety, and can only be reduced by public cooperation coupled with strict law enforcement."

"Every available trooper will be on patrol duty throughout the state to help curb this needless tragedy," said Colonel Burkett, "and alcohol related offenses and speed violations will be our top priorities." "I appeal to the motoring public to support our efforts to save lives this Thanksgiving holiday through their cooperation and report any impaired drivers to their nearest Florida Highway Patrol station or other law enforcement agency," concluded Colonel Burkett.

Sugar

HERALD-OBSERVER, Thursday, November 8, 1984, Page 5A

In addition to commodities such as sugar, corn and cotton, the law also applies to such non-agricultural items such as steel, copper and automobiles.

Major opposition to the program, according to Godfrey, comes from the Refiners Association which supported the Sugar Act up until 1974 but no longer felt hard pressed to depend on legislation to provide an adequate supply of sugar. Also, because an estimated 80 percent of sugar supplies go into sugar-containing products like baked goods, candy and ice cream, producers of these items also oppose the bill. Experts like Robert E. Wunderle, vice president of Supermarkets General Corporation, feel manufacturers use increases in sugar prices as "an excuse to raise their prices, but decreases in sugar prices never seem to get translated down."

Dalton Yancey thinks that if Congress decides not to pass the bill, Florida will fare better than other sugar-producing areas of the country.

"Nobody knows what'll happen without the loan program. Florida is strong in the market and has the ability to store up to a year's supply. If there is a demise in prices, producers would store the sugar and wait for a stabilizing trend."

Nevertheless, since Florida is the nation's largest sugar producer, it is vitally important to the region that the Agricultural and Food Act be renewed.

The industry accounts for over $1 billion of economic activity to south Florida and generates over 30,000 jobs, not counting an additional 12,000 seasonal jobs, according to the Sugar Cane League.

Towns like Clewiston, which are dependent on sugar as a primary economic resource, would be the first and hardest hit.

A PANEL of local cane producing experts gathered at the Clewiston Inn to address South Florida media

Crop forecast mildly optimistic

A heavy smell like burnt molasses and the sight of columns of thick smoke rising into the sky over southern Florida are common this time of year as sugarcane growers begin to harvest the crop.

That was the scene which greeted members of the news media as they visited the Hilliard Brothers farm near Flagpole Road as part of the Florida Sugar Cane League's forum on Friday, Nov. 2. The visit provided a first-hand look at field operations involved in sugarcane harvest and insight into some of the problems faced by cane growers.

The League is only mildly optimistic about this year's yield. It is expected that an estimated 1.3 million tons of raw sugar will be produced during the 1984-1985 grinding season, according to Dalton Yancey, executive vice president of the League. That output would result in only a slight increase over last year's freeze-damaged crop.

Yancey reports that area farmers say the growing season has been "favorable but not outstanding." He added that the growers have been fortunate not to have an outbreak of disease or an uncontrollable insect problem.

The industry expects to harvest some 13 million tons of sugarcane from 370,000 acres. The League says the crop is healthy-looking but farmers continue to keep their fingers crossed, hoping to make it through the harvest season without any extreme weather conditions such as a drought or a repeat of last year's disastrous freeze.

Joe Marlin Hilliard told reporters that just one night during last year cost him 25 percent of his crop. He was forced to leave ten percent of the cane in the field and what was harvested left him with additional losses because of reduced yield. Still, Hilliard, like David Beardsley of Beardsley Farms and Greg Warr of Lykes Brothers, who also took part in the forum, remain cautiously optimistic. "So far, so good," seems to be the prevailing attitude. But they, like the rest of the area's cane growers, know there is still a long road ahead.

As Yancey said, "Dealing with the variables of nature is a part of farming."

keep its doors open.

The dinner is one of several ideas the chamber has for on-going fund raising events. This was the first time the Pahokee Chamber of Commerce has featured an election day dinner but chamber officials say they plan to make it a regular chamber project.

The chamber will be holding their annual dinner banquet in January. Plans have not been formalized.

FBLAS leaders attend workshop

The officers and their advisors from four local community schools Future Business Leaders of America Club attended an officers training workshop, Thursday, October 11, at Palm Beach Jr. College, West Palm Beach.

While at the workshop, the officers heard a presentation about money and inflation. Later, the officers were divided into small groups. In these groups, the students were given information and knowledge as how to carry out their duties and responsibilities.

Persons and schools attending were: Glades Central High - Carmen DeLeon, Maria Villarreal, Everlye Farghason and Mrs. Catherine Granville, sponsor.

Pahokee Jr. Sr. High - Yolanda Golson, Maritza Rubio, Kendra Scott and Mrs. Joann Bass, Advisor.

Clewiston High - Kristal Pelham, Annabelle Delgado, Debbie White, Thayne Martin and Mrs. Cheryl Frazier, Advisor.

Handgun safety class set

A free short course in handgun safety will be offered again by the Glades Central Community School in cooperation with Glades Correctional Institution.

The course consists of two nights of classroom instruction in basic handgun techniques: Safety, loading, unloading, target shooting, cleaning, care, and necessary equipment for the beginning shooter.

Students will provide the handgun (any caliber, no automatics) and 100 rounds of ammunition. Everything else will be supplied.

The two night sessions will be held at Glades Central Community High School Annex Campus, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 13th and 14th from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. The range instructor will be held the following Saturday. There is no charge for the class and certificates of completion will be awarded.

Instruction for both segments will be given by Sgt. W.R. Riddieberger, certified firearms instructor for Glades Correctional Institution and Linda Bohannon of the South Bay Police Department.

Registration can be completed at the Annex Campus or at the Woods, Melissa Sadler, Bernice Simpson the Community School and Ms. Gail Davis at 996-4950 for further Perry, Advisor.

Policeman's ball planned

The Belle Glade Police Officers Benevolent Assc. is preparing for their annual fund-raising event, which is the annual Policeman's Ball. This year's ball will be held at the Belle Glade Elk's Club located at 300 Southeast Avenue E.

The date for the event is November 17, with the hours being from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m. The entertainment will be provided by Hughie Burns and The County Line, a country and western band from West Palm Beach.

Tickets are now on sale with a cost of $25 each. Dress is proper attire required. The event is also B.Y.O.B. or drinks are available from bar at a small charge. For tickets call 996-7254 or see any western band from P.B.A. member.

Reduced bus fare program

Five identification card centers will be open during November for the reduced fare program serving the elderly and handicapped on CoTran, the county bus system.

Persons who are disabled and those 60 years of age and over may obtain the permanent ID cards for a one-time fee of one dollar. Proof of age must be shown by the elderly.

Eligible recipients may ride CoTran buses anywhere in the county at the half fare rate of 35 cents one way. Bus routes operate from Boca Raton through the Tequesta-Jupiter area and into the Glades.

Centers for November: Wednesday, Nov. 7 New West County Senior Citizens Center, 2976 State Road 15, Belle Glade, 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

For more information, call CoTran at 686-4555. *Dedication ceremonies will be held at 3 p.m.

Raiders kicked by Lancers 17-14

BY BILL DOUGHTY
Late game miscues, 119 yards in penalties and the foot of senior kicker John Caruso added up to a 17-14 loss for Glades Central in their Friday night contest with John I. Leonard.

Caruso kicked a 32-yard field goal with just ten seconds remaining in the game to lift the Lancers to the win, but the Raiders blew a chance to put the game away, or at least send it to overtime, in the fourth quarter.

With the score deadlocked at 14-14, Glades Central had excellent field position at its own 46-yardline with three minutes remaining following a 30-yard punt.

The Raiders could only hold the ball for three plays.

After moving to the Lancers' 45, quarterback Kenneth Hammond and Darrell Sanders missed connections on a handoff and Leonard recovered the fumble with 1:35 left.

A questionable interference call on the Raiders' Aubrey Parrish, one of 12 times the team was penalized for a whopping 119 yards, put the ball on the Glades Central 36.

Tim Magee followed with a pass to Craig Swabek who carried to the Raiders' 17 with 25 seconds to go.

Two running plays netted two yards and Magee's incomplete pass stopped the clock, putting the game in Caruso's hands—or in this case, foot.

Leonard drew first blood after Raider's punter Jacinto Paez could not handle a bad snap. Swabek punched the ball in from three yards out. Caruso missed on the extra point and the Lancers led 6-0.

The Raiders came right back with a nifty 67-yard, 11-play drive, culminating with an eight yard pass from Hammond to tight end Jimmy Perkins. Ther-man Jones' extra point gave the Raiders a 7-6 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Swabek later added another three yard touch-down run and Eddie Bloom connected with Roy Winingham on the two-point conversion to put the Lancers up 14-7.

The Raiders capitalized on a Walter Hall interception with a five yard scoring run by Sanders with just over six minutes left in the game. Jones extra point knotted the score at 14-14 and set the stage for Caruso's heroics.

The win raises Leonard's record to 7-1 overall, 3-0 in District 12-AAAA. A win over Forest Hill next week would clinch the title for the Lancers.

Glades Central meanwhile fell to an overall record of 5-4. The Raiders will wrap up their regular season at home next Friday night, Nov. 16 against Cardinal Newman.

Fishing report

Compliments of Tennessee's Pro Guide Service

Another beautiful week has gone by and bass fishing just gets better everyday.

My guide party last week with Gary Goenewald & Doreen Gornak brought in one 10 1/2 pounder & 5 weighing in between 6 and 7 pounds. We were fishing in Pelican Bay and naturally using wild shiners.

I had Joe Saver of Lake Worth and Jim Coreau of Palm Beach Gardens out and we brought in one weighing 8 lb. 11 oz. and another one at 6 lb. 9 oz. And would you believe we also came in with a 9 lb. 4 oz. catfish!

And what can I say about Gary Bowermeister except he's done it again! Last Monday he brought in an 8 pounder using wild shiners.

Al Niemczyk of Margate was real proud of his 9 lb. 14 oz. bass caught on wild shiners. Ted and Martha Kirp came in with an 8 lb. 4 oz. and a 7 lb. bass they got with shiners while fishing with guide Mac McGinnis.

Again this week several people have reported catching specks in the rim canal with green jigs and minnows. Bream and bluegill are scattered throughout and being caught on worms and crickets.

Safe boating tip for the week: With bass fishing being so good, some of us fishermen like to leave the ramp before first light. This being the case I can't stress the importance of making sure your running lights, both bow and stern are working properly. Corrosion and vibration can cause the lights not to work, so check them out before your fishing trip. And remember, properly working running lights are not only a legal requirement but also good ole common sense.

Until next week folks, safe boating and good luck fishing.

A RUN up the middle.

Pahokee romps Boca

Pahokee held a 24-0 lead in the first half of last Friday's game to romp Boca Raton in a final score of 30-16.

"After the kick-off we took the ball, held them and scored on the first set of downs," said Coach Don Thompson. "We held them again and scored again and the score was 24-0 by the end of the half."

Thompson said the Blue Devils didn't score any of the extra points, however.

Running Back Alfonso Smith scored three touchdowns with 205 yards rushing. Donald Edwards scored from a pass from Pernelle McKelton which covered 50 yards.

Quarterback McKelton had 200 yards of passing yardage. The offense had a total of more than 420 yards.

Outstanding players included Alfonso Smith, Pernelle McKelton, Kenny Berry and Donald Edwards for offense.

Thompson said there was good blocking by the line with Marion Sherrod, Leon Hill, Tyrone Holmes, Hose Smith and Clarence Bess.

Tyrone Campbell was named Unsung Hero of the Week and helped for an "outstanding night of defense," Thompson said.

Linebacker Pell Thompson intercepted the ball and ran back

Frostproof upsets Gators

Glades Day took an unexpected beating in their 17-7 loss to Frostproof following a secure lead up to the fourth quarter.

"We led for the most part 7-3 up to the fourth quarter and then Frostproof scored the go ahead touchdown," Coach

Byron Walker Jr. said. The Gators head coach said his team just didn't play as well as they should have. Crucial penalties and an unexpected pass interception attributed to the loss, Walker said.

"We expected the team that got the breaks to win," he said, adding that, "We were in control of the ballgame for the most part but we gave them the opportunity to come back and they beat us."

Philip Echols, quarterback, had more than 100 yards with his 138 yards on 21 carries. He also scored the team's only touchdown.

Walker also commended the Gator defense mentioning Jeff Parsons who had 18 tackles.

This week the Gators go to Moore Haven Friday, Nov. 10, in what Walker expects to be an "anything goes" football game.

"They have good team speed and I expect them to play the best ballgame they've played all year," Walker said.

St. John beats Christian Day 41-6 Saturday

BELLE GLADE
Christian Day's 41-6 loss to St. John Neuman makes the eighth straight loss for the Crusaders but Coach James Jacks said morale is still high.

"This game should have scared us away."

The guys are tired. It's been a long, hard year for them but their attitude is excellent," said the Crusader head coach. Jacks said his team still wants to win football games and that the players have been coming to practice and giving it their all.

"Normally you lose football players when a team is losing games but we have been losing and gaining players and that is just unheard of," Jacks said. "They realize they don't have the experience but they still give everything they've got."

This week the Crusaders will play St. Edwards at home on Saturday at 2 p.m.

Jacks said it should be a good game. "We've got our hands full again but we're used to that," he said, adding, "We have had to overcome some obstacles and have not been able to but we're going to try to win."

Xi Alpha Mu enjoy haunting party

Dinner at "The Haunted House" was the theme of Xi Alpha Mu's October social. "The Haunted House" was the "Lucky Star Ranch", north of Canal Point.

The "Lucky Star" is being remodeled by Betty and Boyd Spence, host and hostess for the occasion. Since much of the interior is yet unfinished, it was the perfect setting for a Halloween party, especially when scarecrows, ghostly figures, lighted pumpkins and other embellishments were added to the scene.

Florence Keen and Charlotte Walston were co-hostesses. A meal was served of ribs, chicken, corn roasted in the husk, fresh peas and beans to mention only a few of the goodies which the "ghosts" devoured in a most unghostly fashion.

The "ghosts" attending were: Florence and Manning Keen, Ethel Johnson, Elsie and E.D. Sims, Charlotte Walston, Irene and Bruce Bowe, Gethie and Lewis Friend, Janet and Ralph Johnson, Georgia and Julius Moon, Betty and Boyd Spence, Eva and Melvin Spooner, Clark Wilkinson, Hilda Wilkinson, and Doris and C.R. Wetherington.

Xi Alpha Mu met October 4, at Florida Federal Community Room. Florence Keen called the meeting to order with eleven members answering roll call.

Main points of business were: a year's leave of absence granted to Judy Gallo, an invitation to attend Open House at the nursing home, an announcement of the Crime Watch meeting at the Glades Court House October 20th, and an announcement that the next social would be at Betty Spence's October 27th. Beth Wilkinson, recently returned from a trip to Europe, and gave an informative program on her tour.

NEW TRI DELTA PLEDGES -- Kimberly Down Chamblee of Belle Glade has pledged Tri Delta sorority at the University of Southern Mississippi. The 1984 fall rush was the second largest in USM's history with 308 girls seeking bids from the nine participating sororities.

Miss Brown to compete in Jr. Bowl

Jamiesna Brown, daughter of Sherry and Joe Brown of Belle Glade, participated in the Ms. Junior Orange Bowl Competition in West Palm Beach, Saturday, October 20.

She was in the contest to represent the City of West Palm Beach. Jamiesna modeled a beige lace off the shoulder dress.

Her accessories included beige shoes, pink stockings and pink babies breath for her hair. She is an 8th grader at Lake Shore Middle School where she is a cheerleader, member of the softball team, Student Council and Future Business Leaders of America Club.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR time at the Community United Methodist Church is Saturday, Nov. 10 in Jameson Hall, Belle Glade. The event is one day only starting at 8 a.m.

Christmas bazaar planned by Methodists

The Christmas Bazaar, sponsored by the Methodist women, of the Belle Glade Community United Methodist Church, will be at Jameson Hall, 401 S.W. First Street, Saturday, Nov. 10.

The Bazaar will feature Thanksgiving, Christmas and all occasion decorations, with soft sculpture, needle work, country crafts and novelty gift items for all.

In the "sweet shop", a variety of pies, cakes, cookies, breads and other goodies. A big selection of jellies, preserves, pickles and relishes.

There will be an ornamental plant sale, and a "Second-time-around-shop".

Homemade chili, vegetable soup and cuban sandwiches will be available for take-out, or eat there in the 'Cafe La Bazaar'.

A door prize will be awarded at the Holiday Bazaar, being held for one day only, Saturday, Nov. 10th, starting at 8 a.m. til 1:30 p.m.

Sunburst U.S.A. pageant slated

BELLE GLADE: The Belle Glade Civic Center will be the site for the Sunburst baby and Sunburst USA preliminary beauty pageant, Saturday, Dec. 2.

Winners will go to the State pageant to represent their county. Entries are being accepted now through the pageant date and forms are available at Sugar Babies Plus, P.J.'s Teen Shop, Sweet N' Sassy and Kim and Tina in Belle Glade.

The baby pageant is for boys and girls under one year, one year and two and three years. A king and queen will be chosen in each age group. They will receive a crown, trophy, banner and their $150 beauty entry fee paid to the state pageant. Runners-up will receive a trophy.

The Sunburst USA pageant is for girls only. The age groups are: Three to six, seven to 10, 11 to 13, 14 to 17 and 18 to 27.

A queen will be chosen in each age group. They will receive crown, trophy, banner and their $150 entry fee paid to the state pageant. Runners-up receive a trophy. The contact person in Belle Glade is Ann Corbett, 996-2397.

Dale- Simmons plans announced

BELLE GLADE: The Methodist Church in Lake Harbor in a double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noland Freeman and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Henderson of South Bay. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Simmons of Belle Glade.

The couple took a wedding trip to Ft. Myers Beach and are now residing at 800 S.E. Ave. B in Belle Glade.

Boys Town Choir to sing here

BELLE GLADE: The Boys Town Choir will perform at the Dolly Hand Cultural Arts Center at 8 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 10 while they are on their 39th annual concert tour.

Boys Town is a home for abused, abandoned, neglected and handicapped youth from throughout the United States.

The choir, which is 43 years old, was founded by Monsignor Francis P. Schmitt. They have performed in nearly every state in the Union. The performance at the Dolly Hand Center will feature such songs as "Ave Maria,"

Brother Fire from "Canticle of the Sun", American Minstrel Songs, "This Land is Your Land," "Bridge

Over Troubled Water," selections from Oliver and "New York, New York."

All seats are $8 and reservations can be made by calling 996-3055 or seats may be purchased at the door the night of the performance.

Home energy assistance offered

TALLAHASSEE —Low-income Florida residents can begin applying for grants on Nov. 1 from the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program, Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services (HRS) officials said today.

The program, authorized by Congress, is designed to help low-income families and individuals meet the costs of home energy. Assistance will be limited to a one-time payment to eligible households. The program is not a crisis program and does not pay monthly utility bills.

HRS, which is administering the program, estimates that more than 200,000 low-income households throughout the state may apply for aid. In order to qualify for assistance, households will have to meet income standards based on family size and total cash income of all household members. Income limits are $415 per month for an individual, $560, for two persons, $850 for four, $1140 for six, plus $145 for each additional person.

Payments will vary among eligible households based on differences in total household income, the geographic area of the state in which the home is located, and the number of persons in the household.

People interested in applying for the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program must do so by Dec. 17. Applications are available at all local HRS offices, as well as other locations including Area Agencies on Aging, Community Action Agencies, county welfare offices and some utility company offices. At some of these locations, staff members will be available to assist applicants in filling out the necessary form.

All applicants must be received by HRS or be postmarked on or before Dec. 17. Applications returned by mail must be sent to the address printed on the application. A decision will be made within 45 days of receiving the application. Applicants will be notified by mail whether or not they are eligible to receive assistance. HRS officials said all notices should go out by late January 1985.

The amounts of energy assistance checks will be determined after the application period is over and all applications have been processed. The Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program included one payment for both heating and cooling expenses. There will be no separate application period for the cooling assistance later on.

BUSINESS AS USUAL? Jane Frier, a technologist with Glades General Hospital's Radiology Department, encountered some unusual subjects last Wednesday night during the hospital's annual Halloween candy x-ray program. Nearly 100 youngsters, such as Jeffrey and Shannon Manger shown here brought their candy to be x-rayed for foreign objects.

Legion hosts Halloween party

BELLE GLADE —The American Legion Post 20 hosted a children's Halloween party Sunday, October 28 at the Legion. The event was hosted by the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion. Children were given trick or treat bags filled with masks, toys, and goodies. Prizes were given for most original, most Halloween and scariest costumes. Approximately 20 children participated in

Key Club week slated

The week of November 4-10 is Key Club Week across North American and the Caribbean region.

The Christian Day School Key Club, in conjunction with the Belle Glade Kiwanis Club, is celebrating the week with special projects.

Angela Miller, Key Club President, said the local Key Club is setting up a "clean-up" day for Saturday, Nov. 10 at St. Philip Benici Catholic Church in Belle Glade.

The club is also hosting a dinner

November 8 for the Christian Day School faculty as well as other projects.

The purpose of the week-long observance is to dramatize the service work performed by the Key Clubs in their schools and communities.

Key Club International has more than 100,000 members in some 3,400 clubs in eight countries and is a Kiwanis sponsored high school service organization.

Key Clubbers worldwide have pledged more than 5,000,000 community service hours during their school year as part of their "Manhours of Mankind" campaign.

Lions sponsor turkey shoot

The Canal Point Lions Club is sponsoring a turkey shoot November 16, 17, and 18 from 8 a.m. to sundown on the dike in Canal Point.

Tickets are $2 each and will be sold at the site.

Gladeview Elementary plans book fair Nov. 12-16

Glade View Elementary School in Belle Glade will sponsor a student book fair November 12 through

16. Students, parents and the general public will be able to browse and purchase books to read or to give as gifts.

The book fair will be opened from 8:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. during these days and the books will be on display in the Media Center. The school is working with Educational Reading Service, a professional book fair company, to furnish an individual selection of brand new books for the fair. This will include attractive new books from many popular publishers in all popular price ranges. All reading interests will be represented, including classics, fiction, biographies, adventure stories, science, nature, crafts, mystery and reference books.

2 arrested on credit card charges

BELLE GLADE—Two Glades residents were arrested Saturday, Nov. 3, for allegedly using a stolen Visa card at the J.E. Wilson and Sons Union 76 service station.

On Friday, Oct. 26, Daniel Bomby, the manager of the gas station, became suspicious of the credit card given to him by the two suspects when he noticed it had been used three times earlier by different people. Darrell Lee Smith, 25, of 891 Palm Blvd. in Pahokee and Sarah Odom, 23, of House 73 Escala Center drove away when Bomby told them the card was invalid.

Commission—

regional park.

In Monday's meeting, County Commissioner Bill Bailey told the Belle Glade City Commission that the city would be responsible for the operation and maintenance of the golf course. The city will enter into a long-term or 99-year lease with the county after the project is completed.

Bailey also told the commission that approximately $2,149 million is earmarked for the nine-hole addition and regional park development.

He said bids for development of the regional park were expected to be received $1 million and $1.4 million. The remaining funds would go to the new golf course extension.

The county commission plans to award the regional park contract on Nov. 13 and a ground breaking ceremony is planned for Nov. 19.

Upon completion of the 18-hole golf course the city will enter into an agreement with the county on a turn key basis, Bailey said.

The new facility will be open to all county residents.

DAY IN/DAY OUT THE SURGERY THAT COSTS LESS

DAY IN/DAY OUT SURGERY IS LESS EXPENSIVE. FOR ALL OF US.

Glades General Hospital announces a pleasing alternative to the overnight hospital stay.

We call it DAY IN/DAY OUT Surgery. And for most minor surgical procedures, it allows you to return home the same day you come in. Six days a week, including Saturday.

That can be pretty comforting when you consider that DAY IN/DAY OUT Surgery can save you more than 50% in hospital charges. Most insurance plans will even pay 100% of the cost of DAY IN/DAY OUT Surgery, without co-insurance or deductibles. Everyone benefits. And in the long run, these tremendous savings help keep hospitalization costs down for all of us.

IT'S FAST AND CONVENIENT

With the advanced techniques we employ at Glades General Hospital, many minor surgical procedures can now be handled safely and conveniently through DAY IN/DAY OUT Surgery. Minor eye, ear, nose and throat operations, as well as simple orthopedic, gynecological and urological procedures.

Simply consult your physician and arrange to pre-register several days in advance, or call (305) 996-6571, ext. 510, for a physician referral.

COMPARE THE SAVINGS Inpatient vs. DAY IN/DAY OUT

Procedure	Cost if Admitted (1)	DAY IN/ (2)	% Savings
Hernia	$1,712	$547	68%
Arthroscopy	$1,285	$469	63%
Fracture	$1,801	$697	61%
D & C	$ 884	$312	65%
Biopsy	$1,406	$491	65%

(1) Includes charges for average length of stay in semi-private room, operating and recovery room charges, and supplies. Charges for x-rays, lab tests or other diagnostic tests that may be requested by your physician, and physicians' fees are not included.

(2) Does not include x-rays, lab tests or other diagnostic tests that may be requested by your physician, or physicians' fees.

WITH DAY IN/DAY OUT SURGERY, WE'RE KEEPING THE STANDARDS OF HEALTH CARE UP, AND COSTS DOWN.

In all the important ways, DAY IN/DAY OUT Surgery at Glades General is like any other hospital stay. All the care and facilities of our full-service hospital are right here if needed: Doctors, nurses, and modern efficient equipment.

DAY IN/DAY OUT Surgery is simply one more way Glades General Hospital is "the caring place." Caring enough to keep the standards of medical care up. And the costs down.
